Our Recommendations

A full range of our most popular insect pest control products at great prices to include, Zappers, Glueboards, decorative units and chain curtains.

Flying Insect Control

Products for the control of Flying Insects.

We need pest control because flies and the majority of flying insects live, breed and feed in disgusting environments, crawling on decaying food, carcasses and human excrement. Flies cannot eat solid food, so they vomit on solids to dissolve them; this then enables the fly to suck...
